

Vision and Mission Statements

“The key difference between a Mission and Vision statement is that the Mission describes the library’s purpose and what it does to fulfill that purpose; and the Vision speaks to a future state, something exciting that will be true about the library and/or something exciting the library will be doing in the future that is not yet true!” OLS - Creating the Future You’ve Imagined: A Guide to Essential Planning

Vision Statement:

Current:

Where books, learning and technology thrive.

Mission Statement:

Current:

The Douro-Dummer Library is committed to providing access to resources and opportunities for reading, life-long learning, personal development and enrichment for the community.

Values:

- Community
- Lifelong Learning
- Information
- Human interaction
- Creativity
- A Skilled, Knowledgeable Staff
- A Commitment to Excellent Service