Describe how the Community Grant Funding will be utilized upon approval:

The Peterborough County Plough Plowmen's Association is a non-profit, volunteer run organization. All donations are used to run our annual plowing match. Participants are able to attend various matches / in counties throughout Ontario and eventually in hopes of participating at the International Plowing Match. This year, The IPM (International Plowing Match) will be in Lindsay, October 1st-5th. Our annual event is free for visitors and provides an opportunity to promote agriculture and the Art of plowing joining rural and urban members of Peterborough County together to celebrate the heritage of agriculture within Peterborough County. Each year our match rotates within the various townships.
